FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MAN SOUGHT IN SEXUAL ASSAULTS ALONG HAMBRICK ROAD CORRIDOR

TUCKER – The DeKalb County Police Department is encouraging citizens living in eastern DeKalb county neighborhoods to use caution following a series of sexual assaults recently along the Hambrick Road corridor in Stone Mountain.

In each case, a female has been accosted either in their place of residence or while walking in the immediate area by a lone black male. The suspect is described as a dark complexion black male, approximately 5 feet 10 inches – 6 feet tall, weighing 175 – 180 pounds.

Detectives with the Special Victim's Unit are canvassing the Hambrick Road area and are actively following up with leads. The DeKalb County Police Department is encouraging residents to be aware of their surroundings and to report any suspicious activity immediately by calling 911.
