TUCKER, GA – DeKalb County Chief Executive Officer Burrell Ellis joined Board of Commission members Kathie Gannon and Sharon Barnes Sutton, Attorney General Thurbert Baker and former DeKalb CEO Liane Levetan for the dedication ceremony of the Northlake-Barbara Loar Library on Saturday, May 30. The ceremony was attended by more than 300 community members and guests who waited with anticipation to see the newly renovated facility.

“We are extremely proud of the new renovations the Northlake – Barbara Loar Library has undergone,” said CEO Ellis. “Our citizens showed overwhelming support for our bond referenda in support of our library projects and today we are happy to see another library open and ready for public use.”

The Northlake Barbara Loar Library officially opened June 1, 2009.
