CEO BURRELL ELLIS HONORS THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF DEKALB CITIZEN

Maggie Carolyn Woods Recognized During Board of Commissioners Meeting

DECATUR – Chief Executive Officer Burrell Ellis, along with the DeKalb County Board of Commissioners, honored the life and legacy of Maggie Carolyn Woods during today’s Board of Commissioners meeting. Maggie Carolyn Woods was an active member in the community and served in various leadership roles. Several generations of her family were present for a reading and presentation of a proclamation in her honor.

CEO Ellis praised the Woods family for their active participation and service to DeKalb County and thanked them for the impact Maggie Carolyn Woods made on the community.

“Maggie was not just a DeKalb County citizen. She was truly a dedicated public servant,” said CEO Ellis. “We will truly miss her and the impact she had on our lives.”

The Commissioners, joined by two City of Lithonia council women, also praised Maggie and thanked the family for their service to the community.
