DEKALB CEO BURRELL ELLIS HONORED AS A “MAN OF INFLUENCE”

DECATUR – DeKalb County Chief Executive Officer Burrell Ellis was recently honored by the Atlanta Business League (ABL) as one of their 2009 – 2010 “Men of Influence.” ABL’s “Men of Influence” event recognized more than 25 African - American men for their accomplishments as executives, business owners, professionals, and community and civic leaders in the metro – Atlanta area.

“I am extremely honored to be recognized as one of the Atlanta Business League’s Men of Influence,” said CEO Ellis. “The caliber of men who stood with me during the ceremony truly reflects commitment, honor and dedication to public service. It is an honor to be considered as a leader for doing what you love.”

The men who were honored have reached senior level positions within their profession, are successful entrepreneurs in their industry and have attained political success. They also have made a commitment to their respective communities. This is the third year the event has been held.
