FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DEKALB LIBRARY SYSTEM TO BREAK GROUND FOR SALEM-PANOLA EXPANSION

Decatur – The DeKalb County Public Library is launching expansion plans for its Salem-Panola branch. Groundbreaking ceremonies are scheduled for Thursday, August 27 at 11:00 a.m. at the branch’s location, 5137 Salem Road in Lithonia. The Salem-Panola Library Expansion reflects one of two library expansions scheduled for August. The other expansion is the Hairston Crossing branch, which will take place on Friday, August 14 at 1:00 p.m.

The public is invited to join DeKalb County CEO Burrell Ellis, DeKalb County Commissioners, Library trustees, administrators and staff for the event to view architectural design drawings and learn additional details about the project—the seventh of eleven the Library is undertaking.

For more information on this event, please contact Ron Leonard at 404-370-8450, ext. 2278. Additional information about the Salem-Panola Library expansion and other library building projects are also available at www.dekalblibrary.org.
